Terms:

Third Party Events are special fundraising events which are planned, implemented and financed by individuals or organizations outside of Canadian Feed The Children (CFTC). All financial and human resources to support the event come from outside CFTC.

It is understood by the event organizer(s) that:

- The event described in this proposal is planned, implemented and financed by individuals or organizations outside of Canadian Feed The Children (CFTC).
- CFTC's role is to lend its name and accept the net proceeds when the event is completed. CFTC will NOT be responsible for any legal or financial liability howsoever caused before, during or after this event.
- The CFTC logo is a registered trademark. In order to ensure that CFTC's name and logo are used correctly we request that all promotion and publicly disseminated materials be approved by CFTC in advance of printing.
- The Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) has strict rules and regulations regarding the issuance of tax receipts. It is imperative that any matters pertaining to receipting are handled efficiently, appropriately and most importantly, legally. If a tax receipt is required to be issued to the donors, please contact CFTC before agreeing to any tax receipting issue.
- This agreement is valid only upon approval by CFTC.
- Canadian Feed The Children reserves the right to cancel this agreement at any time, should the activities of the event organizer(s) undermine CFTC's mission and values.
- Canadian Feed The Children will try to accommodate all requests for materials, representatives and speakers, but please note this may not always be possible.
